MOTTO . . .
FOUR little words—we keep saying them over and over. Gets pretty monotonous, we know. But they are important . . .
Get well—KEEP well!
Those are the war-time words we want to impress upon you. We hope you will adopt them as your personal motto. And wouldn't right now be just about the best possible time to start? Then, see your physician and bring his prescriptions here.

STAR RECIPE

By BETTY BARCLAY

Another month calls for another "Star" recipe — this time for a crunchy cookie that fits equally well into the midnight snack, the worker's lunch pail and the children's school lunch.

Are you out of cinnamon? Too bad! It's the war. But the footnote of the recipe solves this problem.

Crunchies

½ cup dark corn syrup
⅓ cup evaporated milk
2 tablespoons sugar
¾ teaspoon cinnamon
3 cups Post Toasties

Combine syrup and milk. Add sugar and cinnamon. Add to cereal, mixing lightly but thoroughly. Drop from teaspoon on greased baking sheet 2 inches apart. Flatten with back of spoon in thin lacey discs. Bake in slow oven (325° F.) 15 minutes. To keep cookies from sticking, hold pan over flame for a few seconds while removing from pan. Makes 2½ dozen cookies.

Peanut Butter Crunchies. Omit cinnamon in above recipe; mix 2 tablespoons peanut butter with syrup and milk mixture.

Do you read the "papers"?

Certainly, everyone reads the "papers" for latest news, these days. But does your copy of the papers include local news of your neighbors, your city government, your home defense efforts, announcements by YOUR stores?

Not unless you read The Daly City Record, it doesn't. For San Francisco news is not Daly City news. Tax rates, civilian defense regulations, city government news (even county government news) from San Francisco do not apply in Daly City. You won't find your school news, organizational activities, etc., in San Francisco newspapers.

Laborless Labor Day

How about a laborless Labor Day for you, the Homemaker? Truly you deserve relaxation along with the rest of the family! And it can be done, you know.

To make sure the day will be free from cooking, plan your menus for the entire week end so that practically all the meals can be cooked Saturday. Holiday meals needn't follow the regular schedule. With breakfast later in the morning and heartier, too, and a substantial dinner in the offing, lunch can be merely a snack or left out entirely. Of course dinner should be plentiful enough to take care of robust appetites, so we recommend the following:

LABOR DAY DINNER
Old-fashioned Baked Beans
Hot Spiced Beets
Cabbage, Carrot and Orange Slaw
Whole Wheat or Boston Brown Bread
Butter or Margarine
Applesauce Shortcake
Beverage

Ahead-of-time cooking—The beans, beets and shortcake can all be prepared ahead of time so that most of the work is done. Just reheat the beans for an hour before serving time. The beets can be cooked for Saturday with enough left over to spice and reheat for Monday. The shortcake and applesauce can easily be prepared earlier and united at the last moment.

For that holiday air—If it is warm enough, carry the dinner outdoors and enjoy it picnic style. If the weather discourages this, then serve it buffet style with everyone serving himself. What a work-saver this method is and everyone enjoys that kind of dinner.

Baked beans can be different—Practically everyone has her special way of baking beans. My favorite method is to put an onion in the bottom of the bean pot, then heap in the boiled beans, add sweetening, seasonings and enough bean liquor for moisture and bake. The onion flavor permeates each and every bean in a most delicious manner. If you want to be different, try baking other beans such as limas, pink or pinto beans by your favorite method. While they are in season, chopped fresh tomatoes can be used instead of tomato sauce, too.

Early bird shoppers—If you want to get a running start on the relaxation schedule, then do your shopping early with your complete menus in mind and overlapping each other. For instance, a meat loaf could be served hot Saturday and cold Sunday. Vegetables for one meal can go into the salad the next day, and so on throughout the week end.

JUST DESSERTS—If you want to finish dinner off in a triumphant manner, then look to Julia Lee Wright's article in this week's Family Circle Magazine. It's all about sugar and shortening saving desserts.

MILO'S MARKET DE LUXE

6315 MISSION ST.

What can I do?

We believe that nearly all Americans are convinced that, with all its drawbacks, a food rationing program is necessary for an equitable distribution of foods. We have only to remember the chaos which existed prior to rationing, when various lines were "bought out" at the stores.

To help make food rationing more workable, each American housewife or purchaser of food for the family unit, should do everything within her power to cooperate with retailers. An understanding of details of the program will do much to aid in daily shopping. Please remember that your food dealer does not make the regulations, but is charged with the responsibilities of carrying out a plan which rationing experts have decided is most helpful to the nation at large.

As Daly City's largest food center, Milo's Market brings you complete shopping service in one big, modern, deluxe market. At the "Top of the Hill" in the center of Daly City's business district, our one-stop convenience can be a real aid in these busy times.

Strongly competitive prices, made possible by our really big-store operations, reign in all departments. Featured are nationally famous brands of staple and fancy groceries at rock-bottom prices; complete selection of all kinds of fresh fish and poultry; and a meat department whose tremendous volume assures a wide choice of cuts and kinds of fresh and cured meats at low prices.

"Gardening" is a pleasure in our enormous section set aside for fresh fruits and vegetables, with racks and racks of every produce item in season. All are daily-fresh, hand-selected from the best at the growers' markets.
